Melbourne is a vibrant, multicultural city and you are likely to hear many languages from Europe and Asia spoken in its streets. The city is famous for its cultural life, sporting events, nightlife, and shopping and has the reputation of being Australia's gourmet capital. With some of Australia's best universities and schools, leafy suburbs and cosmopolitan diversity, Melbourne is often identified as one of the world's most liveable cities. Many of the state's famous natural attractions – from spectacular coastlines and sandy beaches, to magnificent mountain forests – are within easy reach for day-trippers.
