

Ms Judy Sara
Australian Science and Mathematics School
Bedford Park, SA, Australia

Teaching nanotechnology to high school students.

Want a way to excite your students and tap into their creativity? This workshop takes you through a webquest where students design their own nanoproduct and justify its production. We will also discuss some nanotechnology experiments written specifically for high school students.

Block: 1

Participant Limit: 30