

Ms Denise Hoggan
Keira High School
Fairy Meadow, NSW, Australia

Investigations K-10

This session reports on an action learning project carried out within the Keira High School community of schools in the Illawarra, NSW. The primary and secondary teachers involved examined student investigations from kindergarten to year ten, with a view to developing a scope and sequence of investigation and communication skill indicators on this continuum. The team also examined strategies for fostering curiosity and assisting students in developing manageable hypotheses.

Block: 2

Participant Limit: 30