

Stanhope Oration

Professor Peter Doherty AC FAA FRS
The University of Melbourne

"Science in society, the retreat from reason and the necessity to deal with reality in a world that is increasingly dominated by various forms of fantasy. The talk will also address the importance of education and the central role of science teaching and science awareness for all"