

Margaret L. Clark

Spirituality and Peace-making

Interactive presentation

This presentation will focus on the spirit that moves some peace-makers and their actions. It is not about religions, although some religions have long histories of peace-making, nor is it a 'hard-sale' tactic for any particular religion. It is however, an opportunity for those whose commitment to peace-making/peace-building has a spiritual core to come together to hear from each other as well as from the presenter.